

Praise for Cessna Sensations –

“Certainly no Cessna airplane built from 1939-1967 should be without this book in the map pocket.” -Mike Raftus

“This is a gorgeous, authentic collection of photos, memos, letters, maps and schematics. You'll even learn that Cessna built a helicopter!”
-Paula Williams

“If you like aviation or are in love with Cessna, as I am, then you must add this to your collection.” -Charlie Harrison

“The period suitcases in the baggage compartments; the proper hat on the hat shelf – these photos are like a time-capsule, capturing each component of personal air travel.” -Tom Huf

“Very nice job of capturing the history of Cessna aircraft from WWII to the 1960s. Seeing the first Cessna Flying Club member in flight and the first Cessna based airliner (195) in Iowa was pretty cool.” -Don Maxwell

Vintage Flyer Media LLC
vintageflyer.com

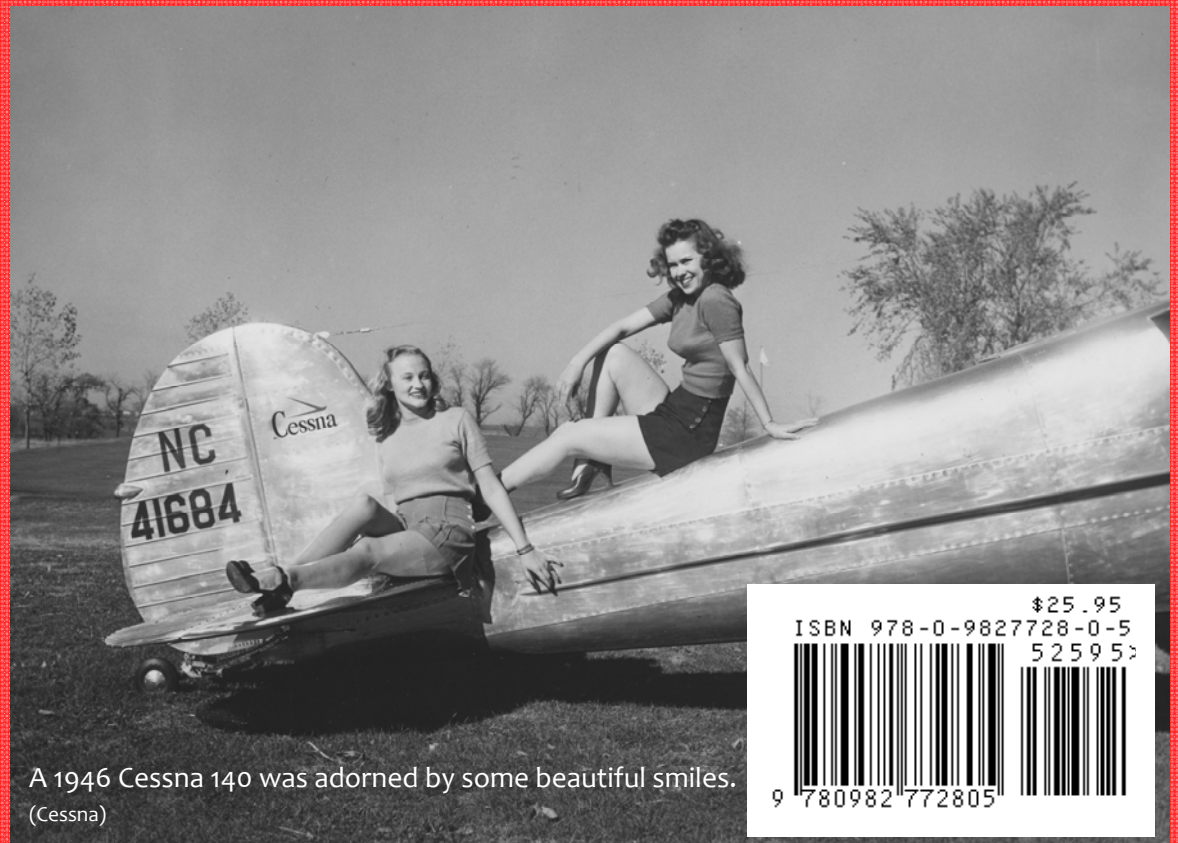

Other aviation books by John Cilio –

→ Vintage Airliners: A Collection of Vintage Photographs

“I thoroughly enjoyed John's book VINTAGE AIRLINERS. I learned something new on each page which I find amazing considering how long I have been around this business.” -Capt. Nick Louis, Chairman, Airline Pilot's Historical Society

→ Portals into the Sky: A Collection of Vintage Cockpit Photographs

“The black and white photos in this book are absolutely fabulous - including a few aircraft I had never even heard of before. Once I opened the front cover, I couldn't put it down. Aircraft enthusiasts won't want to miss this one!” -Neil C.

A 1946 Cessna 140 was adorned by some beautiful smiles.
(Cessna)

