

Portals into the Sky

Piper PA-7 Sky Coupe This 1944 photograph shows the Piper Sky Coupe cockpit. It was a two-place light aircraft which first flew in 1944. It was designed with a thirty foot wingspan using an 113hp Franklin engine and a pusher propeller. As efficient as the cockpit design was, the Sky Coupe flew only as a prototype model. (Piper)